CANADIAN TRADE

EXPORTS SHOW A DECLINE

Slow Movement of Wheat the Cause—Receipts from the Tariff Continue to Grow

Ottawa, Oct. 19.—The trade statement of the Dominion for the quarter ending September 30, was issued today. Compared with the same time last year there is a decline of over three million dollars in the exports, which is to be accounted for by the slow movement of the wheat crop. Imports show a gain of over two millions. There was an increase of half a million in duty collected.

HONORING THE DEPARTED GREAT.

Winnipeg, Oct. 19.—Sir Henry Irving's ashes are being buried in Westminster Abbey today. At all Winnipeg playhouses the dead march will be rendered.

LEAGUERS CONVENE

Brandon, Man., Oct. 19.—The big convention of Manitoba Christian endeavorers concluded here last evening. Delegates were present from all parts of the Province and the sessions were interesting and helpful.

STRATHCONA CURLERS

Organize for the Season—The Hill on the Stony Plain Road is Being Graded

Strathcona, Oct. 20.—The lovers of the "roaring game" held an organization meeting last evening in the town hall. The following officers were elected: President—G. F. Downes, V.P. F. H. Saeche; Chaplain, Rev. W. R. George; secretary-treasurer, E. T. Baines; Committee—Messrs. Sheppard, R. B. Douglas, J. M. Douglas, J. G. Tipton and T. R. Tipton.

The following skis were chosen: W. H. Sheppard, J. M. Douglas, R. B. Douglas, W. Jackson, S. Summerhall, G. F. Downes, F. H. Saeche, J. S. McWithey, Dr. Muller and E. T. Baines. The annual membership fee was fixed at $10. Much enthusiasm was shown, and the harmony and "esprit de corps" of the members augur well for success the coming season.

The fire brigade held a meeting last night in the town hall at which routine matters were transacted. Mr. Tawcett of Beaver Hills, is at the Royal. He reports good crops in his neighborhood and threshing well under way, which is good news for the grain growers.

He says there was a large influx of settlers in that district during the year. Wm. Woodliff, late superintendent of Pere Marquette railway, went south this morning. He purposes touring the country around Red Deer with a view to buying land.

Mr. Smith, who has been engaged with a threshing outfit near Calgary is in town. He reports a good yield of grain and much work to do yet. He says there was much more wind and snow there than in this vicinity during the late storm.

Manager McCure with a gang of experts, is making very good progress with the Mervat water tank. He has already three of the four piers in position.

Mr. Munn of the C.P.R. is now a resident of Strathcona, occupying the east half of W. McCully's residence, Lumsden avenue. He is one of the conductors of the two train crews lately established here.

Street Superintendent Palmer is completing the grade on the hill west near the McKernan farm. This will doubtless prove a great advantage to the merchants of Strathcona, and be a priceless boon to the farmers of Stony Plain and vicinity, and also to the large number of coal mines operated on the river in the neighborhood.

The concert given here last night in the Rose Hall, by Chyke's Orchestra, was a success. A large and appreciative audience was in attendance. The different selections were well rendered.

Progress is being made in the erection of the new curling rink and the Tishander office.

A CORRECTION

Edmonton, Alta. Oct. 20, 1905.

To the Editor Bulletin:—Your last night's daily issue contains a local item reading as follows:

"A meeting of electors of St. Albert will be held on Monday, October 23 at 2 o'clock at Riviere Qui Barre for the purpose of endorsing the action of the convention held in July at which Mr. J. Boudreau of St. Albert, received the nomination. All Liberals and supporters of Mr. Boudreau are cordially invited to be present."

Allow me to tell you, that you have been ill-informed. The object of the meeting is not at all what is there stated. The following notices have been distributed through the riding of St. Albert:

LIBERAL MEETING

Liberal Meeting of Electors of St. Albert Constituency will be held at

FOURIER'S HALL

At Riviere Qui Barre

on

MONDAY NEXT

October the 23rd at 2 p. m. Hon. A. C. Rutherford and Hon. C. W. Crooks will be present.

Every Liberal in St. Albert is invited to attend.

Not a word about Mr. Boudreau or any other candidate in these notices. The meeting is simply and purely a public Liberal meeting at which two members of the Local Government will speak.

Yours truly,

LOUIS LAGASSE, Pres.,

Morinville Liberal Association.

SALE OF SCHOOL LANDS

The sale of school lands just concluded was one of the most successful ever held. The upset price on the land was high, but the easy terms of payment more than compensated for that. In all 874 acres were sold at an average price of $12.94 an acre. The highest price paid was $24.00 and the lowest $6.00. At the sale of school land in Saskatchewan three years ago the average price was in the neighborhood of $8.

These sales are held at irregular intervals, there being no fixed time for them. When a district settles up and the settlers ask for the opportunity to purchase, the Government put the lands up for the highest bidder and judging by the sale just held, it is bona fide settlers who purchase no land speculators or syndicates, thus ensuring the speedy turning of the wild lands into productive areas.

The country has filled up rapidly and most desirable homesteads are taken up within many miles of the railroads or well defined trails. The natural result is that from all over the west a demand was made for the sale of school lands, a series of which sales have been so auspiciously inaugurated.

An indication of the prosperity of the district is afforded by this sale. The terms of sale are very liberal, but a number of purchasers came forward and paid for their land in cash. The commissioners received in cash for the land sold here the sum of $11,000.

RAILWAY MAN HERE

H. Swinford, general agent of the Northern Pacific, at Winnipeg came in yesterday and is spending the day in the city. He is here on a combined pleasure and business trip.

The Northern Pacific having traffic arrangements with the Canadian Northern to handle business between Western Canada and the Western States are interested in the construction of the new C.N.R. line to Edmonton. Mr. Swinford is not a stranger in the West having been in charge of the transport department under General Middleton in the rebellion of 1885. The appearance of the country now bears little resemblance to its condition at that time. Mr. Swinford returns south tomorrow.

New Tariff Regulations of Australia May Direct Canadian Trade to the Islands

Ottawa, Oct. 19.—The Department of trade and commerce has received a cable message from a British steamship firm stating that they are forwarding an offer for a steamship service between Canada and New Zealand. This is a result of Australia adding inland freight in Canada for duty purposes.

LIBERAL MEETING AT NAMAO

Last evening J. R. Boyle, the Liberal candidate in the Sturgeon constituency held a meeting at Namao school house. The place was crowded with electors who listened attentively, first to the Premier and then to the candidate.

Mr. Rutherford spoke convincingly concerning the question of the public Domain and the financial position of the Province, showing that we are a superior people rather than an inferior one as asserted by the Opposition leader. He intimated that Alberta would have $750,000 to spend on public works as against $600,000 by the Territorial Government last year. He also endorsed the candidature of Mr. Boyle and argued his election or the ground that he was a supporter of the Government, easily counseled by the electors, possessed of extensive knowledge of the needs of agriculture, and that the two or three lawyers who were Liberal candidates besides the two in the Government, would be needed to assist in putting the large amount of legislation on the statute book that would be necessary at the beginning of our provincial existence.

Mr. Boyle spoke of the disadvantage it was to him that Mr. Knight had not published any platform and would not meet him to discuss issues. He had therefore to pick up what he could of his position on public matters.

He read two papers over Mr. Knight's signature. In the first he promised to remain neutral on the school issue; in the second he expressed very strong disapproval of the school clauses of the autonomy act and the opinion that it was unconstitutional. He also showed that the Conservative organizer counted on Mr. Knight as one who if elected would help to overthrow the Rutherford Government and that if Bennett were called to form a Government he would if true to his profession, remove the capital to Calgary independent of any vote of the Legislature, no such vote being necessary according to the autonomy act.

He also devoted some time in justification of the educational law of the constitution and showed that the Opposition had only taken the matter up to make political capital out of an agitation.

The Premier also answered two questions put by Rev. Conolly concerning the Government's attitude toward the liquor traffic and toward the C. P. R. tax exemption.

WEATHER.

Winnipeg, Oct. 20.—The weather has been quite cool in Alberta and Western Saskatchewan, though somewhat milder than last report. In Manitoba it has been a few degrees cooler with quite low temperature at night. No rain or snow has been reported at any place. Prospects generally fair and slightly warmer in all districts.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 20, 1905.

A PROGRESSIVE RAILWAY POLICY

8 Resolved that inasmuch as the Provinces westward of the Great Lakes are peculiarly interested in the establishment of a new route to the seaboard alternative to that afforded by railways to the Atlantic coast and inasmuch as the creation of two new Provinces out of the North West Territories gives the first opportunity for co-operation with this end in view, therefore this convention is of the opinion that the earliest possible steps should be taken to secure joint action by the Governments of Manitoba, Saskatchewan, Alberta and British Columbia to ascertain definitely and finally the feasibility of the Hudson's Bay route as an outlet for the commodities and to decide upon the best method of constructing a railway by that route to the waterway by the long land haul may be whereby the long land haul may be diminished by one half and the ocean voyage to European ports also materially decreased.

10 Resolved that this convention regards the necessity which existed for the introduction into the Alberta Act of a clause containing the exemption of railway land from taxation; that this convention is in favor of the Government urging upon the Federal authorities the expediency of removing the restrictions at as early a date as possible. The foregoing are the "railway" clauses of the Liberal policy in relation to Provincial affairs.

While the extension of the transportation system has generally been considered the business of the Federal rather than Provincial Governments it has frequently been the case that when one Province was interested in the construction of a railway line that the initiative resulting in such construction has been taken by the Government of that Province. The proposal to build a railway to Hudson's Bay is founded on the belief that a thoroughly practical and much shorter and less expensive route can be thus secured for placing Western products on the markets of the Old Land. The question therefore being of distinctly greater moment to the Provinces lying west of the Great Lakes than to what now constitutes the more populous and wealthy portion of the Dominion, it is fitting that the initiative in solving the question should be taken by the Governments of these Provinces.

The proposition rests of course on the assumption that the Bay and Straits are navigable for a sufficient long time each season to make the route practicable for the shipment of grain. If this be the case the advisability of the scheme from the Western point of view is beyond question. The first step to be taken therefore should be to ascertain the practicability of the water portion of the route. If the water route be commercially practicable the railway should be built, if that route be not commercially practicable, nothing would be gained and much money lost in the construction of the railway.

While the proposed railway would be for the direct and particular benefit of the West it would also in an indirect manner benefit Canada as a whole and should the route be found desirable it is reasonable that pressure could be brought to bear to have the construction of the line undertaken as a Federal rather than a Provincial enterprise. Strenuous objection to this proposal would doubtless be taken by that class of persons and that section of the press whose talents are devoted to opposing every enterprise not calculated to throw the business of the West more completely into the hands of Eastern Canada, but the merits of the case and the increasing prestige and power of the West should claim for the proposal due consideration.

The alternative plan, to deal with the matter as a Provincial or Western matter rather than a national undertaking should only be considered as a last resort. Aside from the serious financial problem it might involve, the plan would be a practical denial of the principle that the welfare of the West and the East are inseparable and that Western progress and development means Eastern prosperity, a denial which would be made the basis in the future for the claim upon every Federal enterprise calculated particularly for the benefit of the West.

The second clause quoted outlines the Liberal policy towards the exemption of C.P.R. lands from taxation. This exemption was a condition of the original bargain with the company and as such had to be recognized when the autonomy bills were framed. In view however of the additional burden thus thrown on the settlers of the country the Liberals will urge the Federal Government to make arrangements whereby the exemption may be terminated as soon as possible. So far therefore as it is the business of a provincial Government to deal with such matters the present administration stands for a policy of practical accomplishment; for the opening of the short route to Europe and for the removal of the exemption of railway lands from taxation.

MIDDLEMAN BLAMED

Saskatchewan Man Claims the Local Dealer Makes too Large Margin on Lumber

Vancouver, Oct. 18.—William Hobson of Grenfell, Sask., is in Vancouver to buy lumber direct from the mills. Mr. Hobson is a cattle dealer, and it might be mentioned incidentally that he sold two hundred and ten horses to farmers during the past summer.

Mr. Hobson says that British Columbia lumber is too dear, but he says the people of the middle West are not so much concerned as to whether or not there is a duty on American lumber as they are about the large profits of the middleman.

In round figures the lumber costs here for rough work $10, the freight is $5 and the middleman's price is $22. There are two dealers in Grenfell. They have combined on price and the farmer must pay them $7 profit on rough lumber, or pay for all grades from $22 to $36 per thousand. Consequently it is cheaper for the farmer to buy with brick unless his orders, the lumber direct which he paid his neighbors are now doing.

Mr. Hobson said the stumbling-block to the farmer was the middleman and not the railway freight, as the British Columbia mills, he could not see why the British Columbia mills did not arrange to have their own yards throughout the middle West, for with the enormous amount of lumber required, a jobber's margin of from $2 to $4 should pay for his loading and for a good profit. It had been said that the dealer carried the farmer. He could not see that there was anything to be lost in that for they took the farmers note at 8 per cent, and could not lose, for the note was secured by the farmer's crop.

Mr. Hobson thinks that just as long as the mills will accept orders direct from the consumer for lumber the consumer will deal direct, and the mills are at present selling to the consumer direct for cash, as he had ascertained.

—Rev. R. E. Welsh, M.A. of London, England, secretary of the British and Foreign Bible Society, a man who has earned the reputation of being an effective and instructive preacher, will preach in the Presbyterian church on Sunday, Oct. 22 in the morning, and in McDougall Methodist church in the evening.

J. M. Johnson, a sometime resident of North Dakota, was thrown out of a rig by a runaway team, on the hill on Third street about 1 o'clock today. The residents of the neighborhood were somewhat alarmed and telephoned for a doctor, who discovered that a very considerable "jag" was the greatest cause of the man's stupor. He was removed to the police station until able to take care of himself.

TEXT OF THE TREATY

The Terms Under which Japan and Russia Agree to Conduct their Policies in the Far East

The Reuter Telegram company furnishes the text of the treaty of peace concluded by Russia and Japan at Portsmouth, N.H., Sept. 5, and signed by Emperor Nicholas and the Emperor of Japan, Oct. 13 as follows:

"The Emperor of Japan on the one part and the Emperor of all the Russias on the other part, animated by a desire to restore the blessings of peace to their countries, have resolved to conclude a treaty of peace and have for this purpose named their plenipotentiaries, that is to say for his majesty the Emperor of Japan, Baron Komura Jutarō Jusami, grand cordon of the Imperial Order of the Rising Sun, his minister of foreign affairs, and his excellency, Takakura Kōzō, imperial order of the Sacred Treasure, his minister to the United States, and his majesty the Emperor of all the Russias, his excellency Sergius Witte, his secretary of state and president of the committee of ministers of the empire of Russia, and his excellency Baron Roman Rosen, master of the Imperial court of Russia, his majesty's ambassador to the United States, who after having exchanged their full powers which were found to be in good and due form, have concluded the following articles:

"Article 1.—There shall henceforth be peace and amity between their majesties, the Emperor of Japan and the Emperor of all the Russias and between their respective states and subjects.

"Article 2.—The Imperial Russian government acknowledging that Japan possesses in Corea paramount political, military and economic interests, engages neither to obstruct or interfere with measures of guidance, protection and control which the Imperial government of Japan may find necessary to take in Corea. It is understood that Russian subjects in same manner as the subjects and citizens of other foreign powers, that is to say they shall be placed on the same footing as the subjects and citizens of the most favored nation. It is also agreed in order to avoid causes of misunderstanding, that the two high contracting parties will abstain on the Russian-Korean frontier, from taking any military measure which may menace the security of Russian or Korean territory.

"Article 3.—Japan and Russia mutually engage: 1st, to evacuate completely and simultaneously, Manchuria, except the territory affected by the lease of the Liao Tung peninsula. In conformity with the provisions of the additional article one annexed to this treaty; and 2nd, to restore entirely and completely to the exclusive administration of China, all the portions of Manchuria now in occupation or under the control of the Japanese or Russian troops with the exception of the territory above mentioned.

"The Imperial government of Russia declare that they have not in Manchuria any territorial advantages or preferences, or exclusive concessions to the impairment of Chinese sovereignty or inconsistent with the principles of equal opportunity.

"Article 4.—Japan and Russia reciprocally agree not to obstruct general measures common to all countries which China may take for the development of the commerce or industry.

"Article 5.—The Imperial Russian government transfers and assigns to the Imperial government of Japan, with the consent of the government of China the lease of Port Arthur, Taïien and the adjacent territory and territorial waters, and all rights, privileges and concessions connected with or forming part of such lease, and also transfers and assigns to the Imperial government of Japan all public works and properties in the territory affected by the above mentioned lease.

"The two contracting parties mutually engage to obtain the consent of the Chinese government mentioned in the foregoing stipulation.

"The Imperial government of Japan on their part undertake that the proprietary rights of Russian subjects in the territory above referred to shall be perfectly respected.

"Article 6.—The Imperial Russian government engage to transfer and assign to the Imperial government of Japan, without compensation, and with the consent of the Chinese government, the railway between Chang Chun Fu and Kuan Chang Tu and Port Arthur, and all the branches, all the rights, privileges, and properties appertaining thereto in that region, as well as all the coal mines in said region belonging to or worked for the benefit of the railway. The two high contracting parties mutually engage to obtain the consent of the government of China mentioned in the foregoing stipulation.

"Article 7.—Japan and Russia engage to exploit their respective railways in Manchuria exclusively for commercial and industrial purposes and nowise for strategic purposes. It is understood that this restriction does not apply to the railway in the territory affected by the lease of the Liao Tung peninsula.

"Article 8.—The Imperial governments of Japan and Russia, with the view to promote and facilitate intercourse and traffic, will, as soon as possible, conclude a separate convention for the regulation of their connecting railway services in Manchuria.

"Article 9.—The Imperial Russian government cede to the Imperial government of Japan in perpetuity and full sovereignty the southern portion of the island of Sakhalin and the islands adjacent thereto and the public works and properties thereon. The 50th degree of north latitude is adopted as the northern boundary of the ceded territory. The exact alignment of said territory shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of the additional article eleven annexed to this treaty.

"Japan and Russia mutually agree not to construct in their respective possessions of the island of Sakhalin or the adjacent islands any fortifications or other similar military works. They also respectively engage not to take any military measures which may impede the free navigation of the strait of La Perouse and the strait of Tartary.

"Article 10.—It is reserved to Russian subjects, inhabitants of the territory ceded to Japan to sell their real property and retire to their country, but if they prefer to remain in the ceded territory they will be maintained and protected in the full exercise of their industries and rights of property on condition of submitting to the Japanese laws and jurisdiction. Japan shall have full liberty to withdraw the right of residence, or to deport from such territory any inhabitants who labor under political or administrative disability. She engages however that proprietary rights of such inhabitants shall be fully respected.

"Article 11.—Russia engages to arrange with Japan for granting to Japanese subjects rights of fishery along the coast of the Russian possessions in the Japan, Okhotsk and Behring seas. It is agreed that the foregoing agreement shall not affect rights already belonging to Russia or foreign subjects in those regions.

"Article 12.—The treaty of commerce and navigation between Japan and Russia engage to adopt as a basis for their commercial relations pending the conclusion of a new treaty of commerce and navigation the basis of the treaty which was in force previous to the present war, the system of reciprocal treatment on the footing of the most favored nation in which are included import and export duties, customs formalities, transit and tonnage dues and the admission and treatment of agents, subjects and vessels of one country in the territory of another.

"Article 13.—So soon as possible after the present treaty comes into force all the prisoners of war shall be respectively restored. The Imperial governments of Japan and Russia shall each appoint a special commissioner to take charge of the prisoners. All prisoners in the hands of one government shall be delivered to and received by the commissioner of the other government, or by his duly appointed representative in the appointed ports of the delivering state as such delivering state shall notify in advance to the commissioner of the receiving state.

"The governments of Japan and Russia shall meet at each other as soon as possible after the delivery of the prisoners is completed, with a statement of the direct expenditures respectively incurred by them for the care and maintenance of the prisoners from the date of capture or surrender and up to the time of death or delivery. Russia engages to repay to Japan as soon as possible after the exchange of statements as above provided the difference between the actual amount so expended by Japan and the actual amount similarly disbursed by Russia.

"Article 14.—The present treaty shall be signed in duplicate in both the English and French languages. The texts are in absolute conformity, but in case of a discrepancy of the interpretation, the French text shall prevail.

C. P. HARRIS

SOME MEN ARE RICH

In Edmonton today because they had foresight enough two or three years ago to buy property which, as the city grew, advanced rapidly in value. Some of them were laughed at—people called them fools—but two short years have abundantly proved the correctness of their judgment, and they are reaping the reward of their faith in the city.

The growth of the city during the past two or three years has been great, but, compared with the growth of the next two or three years it will be but as the dawn of day, compared with the splendor of the noon-day sun.

You have the opportunity now to do as some few did in the past.

The Groat Estate

is now on the market at prices which will look small—very small, indeed—in the very near future. The city is growing westward rapidly and ere long this estate will be the choice residential part. No part of this estate is more than two miles from the very centre of Edmonton today—in five years it will be in the very heart of the city.

There are 500 lots—50 x 150 ft.—to be sold on easy terms—one-third cash, and the balance in six and twelve months, without interest. There will be no taxes to pay for over a year.

History Repeats Itself

You can buy from two to ten lots for the same money which it will take to purchase one in the present settled part of the city. Those who sow a few dollars now will reap a rich harvest in the not-far-distant future. Don't miss the chance now—TODAY—and have to say in a year: "What a fool I was that I didn't purchase a year ago." Somebody is going to make money on this estate—why not have a share of it?

—A very pleasant social evening was enjoyed by the friends of J. D. McEduards at the home of Mrs. Green, Wednesday night. Mrs. McEduards, mother and sister who are at present visiting Mr. McEduards return on Tuesday to their home at Sarnia, Ont.

—A break in the watermain on Jasper avenue, in front of W. J. Walker's store at five o'clock this morning caused a scurrying of city officials. The basement of W. J. Walker's store was flooded and the water filled to the depth of one foot. No damage is reported. This is the second break on Jasper avenue this month.

—Regina Standard: Three members of the staff of the Territorial Government arrived from Edmonton Sunday night. They are Miss Hugg, stenographer of the public works department; Mr. D. S. Mackenzie, deputy commissioner of education; of Alberta; and Mr. George Harcourt, deputy minister of Agriculture. Miss Hugg went to Edmonton to give some information to those who will carry on her work, and the two gentlemen have come down to make arrangements for moving their headquarters to Alberta's capital. Mr. Mackenzie was seen by the Standard representative, but was disinclined to say much for publication. He stated, however, that the permanent offices would be ready in about ten days, and the Alberta Government work would then go along quite smoothly. At present much work was being done, but the offices were too small for the proper systematizing of the work. Asked regarding the elections, Mr. Mackenzie stated that there was speculation in the Western Province over the time of the appeal of the people. There had however been no announcement, and it was mere guess work to predict the date.

W. H. Cooper went to Wataskwin today.

F. C. Strongtharm went to Calgary this week.

Mrs. N. Harbois went to Calgary this morning.

Hon. F. Oliver returned from Ottawa last night.

T. A. Stephen leaves tomorrow for Chicago, Toronto, Montreal, Boston and New York on a combined business and pleasure trip. Mr. Stephen takes along a good supply of pamphlets, souvenirs, etc., and will take the opportunity of paying a word in season for central Alberta.

POLITICAL

The Liberals of Calgary and Gleichen will hold a monster political meeting at the Lyric Theatre Tuesday night next, Oct. 24. The meeting will be addressed by Hon. W. H. Cushing, minister of Public Works and Liberal candidate for the Calgary riding. C. A. Stuart, Liberal candidate for the riding of Gleichen; Duncan Marshall, and other prominent Alberta speakers.

FOUR CANDIDATES IN ROSEBUD—The third conservative enters the Rosebud field and will stop in the fight until the last vote is polled. The riding of Rosebud has now four candidates, three Conservative candidates and one Liberal candidate. The last man to enter the field is Dr. Lackner of Olesburg. He is a Conservative. The candidates now in the field are M. Clark, the Liberal candidate; C. Hebert, the regular Conservative candidate; and Dr. Lackner, independent candidate.

CALGARY LIBERALS ORGANIZE—Alberta: The Liberals had an interesting kind of a house warming last night in the new committee rooms which were formally opened. The meeting was little better than any organization meeting ever held in Calgary before. The rooms which are very suitable ones, are situated over the store of the Calgary Wine and Spirit Company. The quarters include an assembly hall holding about one hundred people, and two smaller committee rooms.

Last night the large crowd present overflowed the larger room and filled up the committee rooms as well. About two hundred men were present. R. A. James was chairman of the meeting, and after a brief address he called upon the Hon. W. H. Cushing, who in a short address, dealt with the issues before the electors.

He dealt with the schools and lands curtailing his remarks somewhat because the meeting was an organization meeting and the object was organization.

Duncan Marshall spoke briefly but eloquently on the issues of the day. Dr. Stuart also addressed the meeting.

SURVEYOR RETURNS

Mr. A. Saint Cyr, Government surveyor, returned to the city yesterday after having spent the past eighteen months west of Lesser Slave Lake. He started at the north east corner of Township 76 on the 6th meridian, working south the 6th base line, connecting there with Mr. Cauley's survey line. Last winter being an open one he did not miss a day on account of the snow or bad weather, worked from where the E. Bray party stopped on Range 13 to the 6th meridian.

Going north in the spring of 1904 they just got to Lesser Slave in time in a few days the ice was moving on the Athabasca river. The party proceeded to the extreme western end of the lake and from there cut a road west, through the bush to Sturgeon Lake, a distance of nearly one hundred miles.

At Sturgeon Lake there are two trading posts, one of the Hudson Bay Co. and the other owned by Bredin & Cornwall. A Catholic mission and a few houses comprise the entire settlement, the population numbering about forty souls. The Indians are the wood Crees and live in scattered groups throughout the district.

The country traversed is covered with jackpine, poplar, birch and cottonwood. The soil is a black loam and should be very productive. Numerous streams and lakes were encountered and coal outcrops throughout the entire district. The party enjoyed the best health throughout the entire trip and will be paid off and disbanded at once.
